

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
THE DIRECTOR OF INTELLIGENCE AND RESEARCH
WASHINGTON

March 23, 1977

Dear Dan:

Secretary Vance has asked me to thank you for sending him the Reports of the Director of Central Intelligence on the Intelligence Community, the Perspectives for 1979-1983 and the Key Intelligence Questions for Fiscal 1977. We appreciate the effort your staff put into preparing them.

INR plans to work in close cooperation with you and other intelligence community agencies in carrying out the work outlined in Presidential Review Memorandum No. 11. Needless to say, I will be giving these efforts my personal attention.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "H. Saunders".

Harold H. Saunders

The Honorable

Deputy to the DCI for the Intelligence Community
Central Intelligence Agency
